P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the food service and lodging establishments of our State represent large and important segments of the business of our area; and,

WHEREAS, restaurants, hotels and motels not only form a vital part of the daily life of our citizens, but play a significant role in extending hospitality to visitors; and,

WHEREAS, the food service and lodging establishments are keynotes to the economy of South Dakota, offering employment to so many, and also are markets for the products and services which provide a living for great numbers of our citizens and contribute heavily to the general economic welfare of our economy; and,

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Lodging Association urges the observance of this occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1969, as in the State of South Dakota and urge all citizens to enjoy and participate in the many services offered by our food service and lodging establishments.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 31st day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen hundred and Sixty-nine.

Frank L. Farrar
